

CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- Opportunity to share the best view in town with key employees
- Ideal meeting place for interviews, press conferences, business negotiations and client entertainment
- Free room rentals for corporate events, holiday parties and other celebrations
- Reciprocity with private clubs in Omaha and around the world, including the National Press Club in Washington, D.C., and the Downtown Athletic Club in New York City.
- Monthly luncheon forums with community leaders, authors, film producers and other news makers.
- Professional development opportunities featuring leading local and national communications experts.
- Stipend program for qualified communications professionals who wish to attend workshops or seminars
- Networking opportunities with other professionals in the Omaha area
- Free access to monthly newsletter, “Beyond 30”
- First opportunity to purchase tickets to the annual Omaha Press Club Show, one of the premier social events in Omaha.
- Free parking at the DoubleTree Hotel or the Central City Garage at 17th Street and Capitol Ave. with a validated parking slip.
- Special events throughout the year, including “Face on the Barroom Floor” presentations, Sunday brunches on selected dates, and karaoke nights

Besides all of these benefits, employees who are part of a corporate membership group will only pay up to half the annual dues of an individual member. Join today!

OMAHA PRESS CLUB